VI.

- A. Kamara Tramble, head accountant of student accounts and club accounts, said if anyone has any questions regarding your club and its account balance, email her @ tramblekamara@fhda.edu or schedule a meeting with her in her office. Her in-person office hours are Monday-Wednesday from 7:00am–4:00pm. Tramble explains the process of getting a reimbursement at Foothill. First, you have to purchase the item first, not request the money first. Second, fill out her form that is on her website: https://foothill.edu/directory/profile/tramble_kamara.html. You do not need to itemize your purchase; just attach a receipt and write the total of the amount you want to be reimbursed on the receipt. You also need to send your club minutes that show that the majority of your club members agreed to reimburse the purchase. Remember there needs to be a motion in the minutes to correctly reimburse the purchase. Additionally, your minutes should contain the rest of the concepts your club talked about during the meeting. Third, have your advisor sign it and email it to Tramble. Tramble also noted that your club can also pay via invoice if the company you're purchasing from allows it. The step for a "reimbursement" from an invoice is: email the invoice to Tramble and make sure to write the company's name on the invoice instead of your name. This is because she is paying the company with your funds, not you. Tramble then went on to say that if you got approved for a reimbursement, you can pick up your check from her office or she zshe
