

Updated: February 2024

The capstone must be related to the student's concentration area and be taken towards the end of the minor. You will present a final solo or group capstone performance lasting between 10 and 20 minutes that displays what has been learned through the minor. This could be a theatre work, a monologue, a solo or ensemble musical recital, a dance piece or a musical theatre piece.