

Student Guide for Finding a Mentor for the RSLs

Every project can benefit from having an advisor or mentor who can coach on research and strategies, and review progress, and encourage the team members through difficulties.

Working with a skilled mentor can become a professionally enriching experience. Here are some ideas about finding a mentor for your project. Your search most likely will begin with a letter to a prospective advisor that introduces yourself and

